

Please join SeniorLAW Center for a free training on Transferring Deeds to Untangle Titles

When: Wednesday, March 21, 2018
12:00pm – 1:00pm (Lunch will be provided)

Where: Morgan Lewis
1701 Market Street, Philadelphia

Low-income senior homeowners often run into serious obstacles when their names are not properly listed on their property deeds as record owners. An incorrect deed can lead to utility shutoffs, home repair problems, tax issues and, in the worst cases, foreclosure. Please join us for this lunchtime session where SeniorLAW Center will train volunteer attorneys to prepare deeds and clear up clouds on title for senior homeowners.

This is a limited representation pro bono opportunity! Volunteers can prepare deeds from their own offices at times convenient to them. By attending, you are committing to handle at least one pro bono matter for a SeniorLAW Center client. One substantive CLE credit will be available to those who handle a pro bono matter.

For building security and to order lunch (courtesy of Morgan Lewis), advance registration is required. Please email sratner@seniorlawcenter.org or call 215-701-3204 no later than March 19th to register.

Help make a difference in a senior’s life and register today!

SeniorLAW Center is a nonprofit public interest law firm protecting the legal rights and interests of seniors in need. Visit www.seniorlawcenter.org for more information about our programs and services.