

WELCOME TO THE

Philadelphia Landlord/Tenant Legal Help Center

A collaborative effort of the legal services community, coordinated by SeniorLAW Center, housed in Municipal Court.

The Philadelphia Landlord/Tenant Legal Help Center offers FREE legal information, advice, and limited representation to unrepresented, low-income tenants* of all ages in Philadelphia

- Do you have a problem with your landlord?
- Have you received a letter from your landlord telling you to move?
- Has your landlord locked you out of your home turned off your utilities?
- Has your landlord filed an eviction action against you?

Our attorneys, volunteer attorneys and law students are available to discuss your legal issue with you!

WHERE:

Philadelphia Municipal Court
The Widener Building
1339 Chestnut Street, Room 1009
Sign in at the Clerk's Counter

WHEN:

Monday 1:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Wednesday 10:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Do NOT wait for your court date. Tenants are seen on a first-come, first-served basis so please come early. Language interpretation is available.

*Monthly income of $1,815 for 1 person; $2,452 for 2 people